Take up and Read!
As we start the new Liturgical year we decided to add this section to the Bulletin, where we propose Bible readings that are in tune with what the Church offers both at Mass, and in the Liturgy of the Hours

Selected Bible readings for this week:
Is 45-56; Zeph 1-3; Mt 21; Lk 7; Jn 5; 1Thess 5.

Message From Fr. Kramer Cameron, LC

Dear Families and Friends of Santi Apostoli,

Today's second reading commands us to "be happy". "Rejoice always!" It's in uniting our crosses and sufferings to Jesus' suffering, especially in the Mass, that we are able to experience this deepest happiness, this resurrection even in our lives and our hearts. As we said last week, gratitude allows us to open our hearts to Jesus' coming. The Eucharist means "thanksgiving". Let us offer Jesus all that is in our hearts in the Eucharist, in thanksgiving, allowing God to bring about the resurrection in our lives, our families and our world.

This is our last week before Christmas. Let us stay close to Jesus in the Eucharist, placing everything that we are into the heart of Jesus and watch how he transforms our lives.

Note that this Christmas takes place on a Monday. See above for next Sunday's Mass Schedule and the Christmas Eve schedule. Here below is also the Christmas Day Schedule:

Monday December 25 Christmas Day

English Mass - 10:15am

Mass in Italian - 11:45am & 7pm

May God continue to bless you and each of your families.

Have a great week! If you need anything, never hesitate to ask me.

God bless you and your loved ones, Fr. Kramer Cameron, LC
