Message From Fr. Kramer Cameron, LC

Dear Families and Friends of Santi Apostoli,

Today we are celebrating World Mission Day. The theme of this year, chosen by Pope Francis, is: "Go and invite everyone to the banquet" (cf. Mt 22:9). Below is the first paragraph of his message and the three main points followed by the link to the full message:

"Dear brothers and sisters!

The theme I have chosen for this year's World Mission Day is taken from the Gospel parable of the wedding banquet (cf. Mt22:1-14). After the guests refused his invitation, the king, the main character in the story, tells his servants: "Go therefore to the thoroughfares, and invite to the marriage feast as many as you find" (v. 9). Reflecting on this key passage in the context of the parable and of Jesus' own life, we can discern several important aspects of evangelization. These appear particularly timely for all of us, as missionary disciples of Christ, during this final stage of the synodal journey that, in the words of its motto, "Communion, Participation, Mission", seeks to refocus the Church on her primary task, which is the preaching of the Gospel in today's world.

1. "Go and invite!" Mission as a tireless going out to invite others to the Lord's banquet
2. "To the marriage feast". The eschatological and Eucharistic dimension of the mission of Christ and the Church.
3. "Everyone". The universal mission of Christ's disciples in the fully synodal and missionary Church"

Let us ask the Lord to be his missionaries and to send more missionaries in our world today.

If you need anything, don't hesitate to reach out.

God bless you and your loved ones, Fr. Kramer Cameron, LC
