Message From Fr. Kramer Cameron, LC

Dear Families and Friends of Santi Apostoli,

This week we are entering upon sacred ground. We begin Holy Week. We are stepping into the mystery of God's love being so great that he gives his life for us.

Easter is also a busy time, but let's live this time in mystery. Let's live this time as a community united in prayer wherever we are. Some of you are heading off to vacation. Some of us are heading off to missions. Some of you will stay in Florence. Wherever we are, let us be united with Jesus as he shows us how much he loves us. Let us also pray for one another these days that we may open our hearts ever more to the love and mercy of God.

Let us live the Last Supper with Jesus, the suffering in Gethsemane, the Passion and Death on the Cross, and especially the Resurrection. We at Santi Apostoli are a resurrected people. We not only have the stones in our Church from the tomb that witnessed Jesus' death and resurrection, but we too witness his resurrection on a daily basis in our lives, in our hearts and in every Mass. Jesus, help us all to live these days close to your heart.

May God continue to bless you and each of your families. Have a great week! If you need anything, never hesitate to ask me.

God bless you and your loved ones, Fr. Kramer Cameron, LC
